

Follow-up instructions to the course
Central and Eastern European countries -newcomers in the European Union
Konstanz Universität, June 2008

Item	Contact person(s) &amp; address(es)	Deadline
Finalized presentation (in electronic form)	To Volker Beck (computerhiwi.verwiss@uni-konstanz.de)	ASAP, on 26.6. at latest
Consultation of presentations and papers	Martin Potůček, potucek@fsv.cuni.cz	Last oral consultation possible on 28.6. after the lecture
Final paper e-mailed <sup>1</sup>	Dagmar Loveckova loveckov@fsv.cuni.cz	31.8./evaluation deadline 15.9. 15.9./evaluation deadline 30.9.
Final paper printed and snail-mailed	Prof. Dr. Martin Potůček, Center for Social and Economic Strategies FSV, Charles University, Smetanovo náměstí 6, 110 01 Prague 1, Tschechische Republik	31.8./15.9.

---

<sup>1</sup> Recommended structure of the paper:

Title, author(s)

Summary (up to 2 pages)

1. Research question(s)

2. Theoretical considerations

3. Choice of method(s) and data (knowledge) resources

4. Main part – extended body of evidence and reasoning (may be structured further)

5. Conclusions

Resources

Appendices (if applicable)

Approximate length: 20 pages per student