

International Workshop of China and Asia Research Center

College of Economics, Nihon University

State and Market in the Eurasian Emerging Countries

Comparative Studies on China, Russia, and Central-Eastern Europe

Date: Jan. 25 (Sat.) 2020

Venue: College of Economics, Nihon University, Tokyo, Japan

Programme

Session 1: State-led Economic Development in Central-Eastern Europe

Chair: IKEMOTO Shuichi (Nihon University)

10:00 Opening Remarks

IKEMOTO Shuichi (Nihon University)

10:05 “Whither Transformation? –Change and Legacy in Socio-Economic System”

MORITA Tsuneo (Tateyama Institute, Hungary)

10:50 “From Command Economy to (Periphery) Capitalism-Lessons from 3 Decades of Socio-Economic Transition of Hungary”

BOD Peter (Corvinus University of Budapest)

11:35 “The State and Market in the Post-Communist Czech Republic”

Martin Potůček (Charles University)

12:20 Lunch

Session 2: Social Transformations in Russia ,China and CEE

Chair: IJIRI Naohiko (Nihon University)

- 13:15 "State Capitalism in Russia: Theoretical History and Current Situation"
HIDAI Takeo (Wako University)
- 13:45 "State and Capital in China: Politics, Law and Corporate Strategy"
WATANABE Mariko (Gakushuin University)
- 14:15 "The Transition to a knowledge economy and Russia's State Capitalism"
SUGIURA Fumikazu (Teikyo University)
- 14:45 "The Strategy of Catch-up Industrialization in CEE"
IKEMOTO Shuichi (Nihon University)
- 15:15 Break

Session 3: What was/is Socialism, State Capitalism and Transformation?

Chair: IJIRI Naohiko (Nihon University)

- 15:30 "Four Lessons from the Transition Studies"
IWASAKI Ichiro (Hitotsubashi University)
- 16:00 "Corporate structure and state-permeation in Russia"
MIZOBATA Satoshi (Kyoto University)
- 16:30 Comments
MORITA Tsuneo, BOD Peter, Martin Potůček
- 17:30 Closing Remarks
IKEMOTO Shuichi